1939 Fiesta Funds Run Within $2000 Of Previous Year's

Despite lower attendance receipts at the 1939 Fiesta than in previous years because of the extreme heat prevailing at the time of this year's show, receipts were within $2000 of the 1938 exhibit and greater than any other previous shows, the auditor's report released by the San Mateo County Fair Association disclosed Tuesday.

Balance on hand to start next year's show also is nearly as large as that left over the previous year, the audit revealed.

Receipts for the 1939 show totaled $11,357.40, of which $5622.75 was from general admissions; $3493.25, rodeo; $576.49, concessions; $1177, trade displays; $20, memberships; $89.68, collections on 1938 fair revenue, and $378.23, miscellaneous. Comparable receipts last year were $13,290.20; in 1937, $8097.20; in 1936, $7794.04.

With the county tax apportionment of $10,466.79, and state funds of $23,760.66, and balance on hand at the start of the fiscal year of $4089.53, the fair association had $49,674.38 available for expenditures this year, Auditor C. E. Piatt's report shows.

Expenditures totaled $45,935.74. Largest items were: Manager's salary, $3300; secretary's salary, $1420; publicity, $3176.78; rodeo, $5422.40; policing, $1011.16; lights and wiring, $2244.85; labor, $5057.23; decorating, $1580.26; "supplies and expenses at Bay Meadows," $1616.82; cash premiums, $14,272.65; payments on 1938 fair expenses, $1130.60. All other items were under $1000.

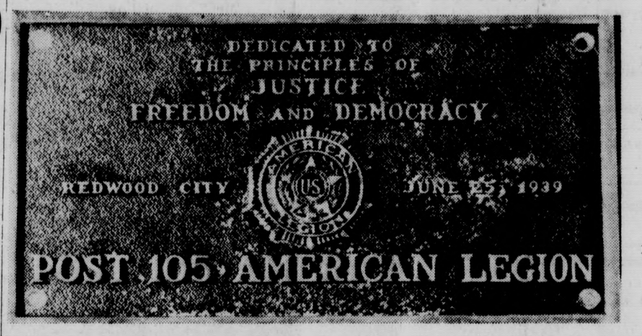
Balance on hand Nov. 30 was $3738.64. Accounts receivable totaled $136.25.

The audit covered the period from Dec. 12, 1938, to Nov. 30, 1939.

Attendance this year was figured at 13,864. Last year it was 16,405; 17,966 in 1937; 14,905 in 1936.

Piatt's audit, being detailed, was expected to prove satisfactory to the new grand jury, which announced after its meeting last Friday that the previous report of expenditures was not satisfactory to the inquisitors.

LEGION TO INSTALL PLAQUE IN LIBRARY



When the Redwood City Library staff holds "Open House" for local residents next Sunday afternoon, this dedicatory bronze tablet will be presented to the library by Post 105, American Legion.

It will be placed just inside the main entrance, in space provided for the purpose by the architect.

Final Rites Are Held For Mrs. Annie Hale

Funeral services were held at the English Chapel of Cypress Lawn Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Annie Hale, wife of Jesse L. Hale. Mrs. Hale, who had been ill for 18 months, passed away Sunday. She had lived in Redwood City for two years, residing at 231 Lincoln Ave. Mr. Hale is retired. Mrs. Hale was the mother of Ray Hale of Vallejo, Mrs. R. J. Stephenson of San Francisco and Mrs. W. L. Schreder, who lives in the East. The Hales lived in San Francisco before coming here.

"WHO'S BOSS AROUND HERE?"

Kay Kyser may be the radio luminary drafted to Hollywood to make a super-super musical comedy sensation, but it's his grandma, May Robson, who's giving the orders on how the maestro of "The College of Musical Knowledge" is to act before the glamour gals! Ginny Simms, the band's attractive soloist seems amused by Grandma Robson's commands in this scene from Kyser's debut picture "That's Right—You're Wrong," RKO Radio filmusical, co-starring Adolphe Menjou with Lucille Ball, Edward Everett Horton and others in support. This picture shares honors with "The Secret of Dr. Kildare" at the Fox Sequoia Theater on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Eve LeGallienne Gives Show in S. F.

If Eva LeGallienne never played any other play than Hedda Gabler" her name would be emblazoned upon the escutcheon of artistic endeavor as an example of the highest art in histrionic expression.

Her "Hedda Gabler" is a classic in portraiture, interpretation and logical reasoning, as finely limned as anything ever seen upon the American stage and one that will be worthy of a niche in the gallery of famous stage personages. Her "Hedda Gabler" will rank with the "Becky Sharp" of Mrs. Fiske, the "Sappho" of Nethersole, the "Magda" of Duse and the "Phedre" of Bernhardt — five great artistes in their five great plays.

Miss LeGallienne, supported by her company, of which Earl Larimore is the principal player, will occupy the stage of the Curran Theater during Christmas week, Dec. 25-31, inclusive.

Christmas night, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings and Wednesday matinee will be devoted to "Hedda Gabler." On Tuesday evening and Saturday matinee "The Master Builder" will be given.

Death Crash Driver Granted Probation

Convicted of negligent homicide in an accident which took the life of two persons, Eugene C. McDonald, 24, Oakland painter, was sentenced to 90 days in jail by Judge A. R. Cotton on Monday. He was admitted to probation for two years.

McDonald was blamed for an Apr. 23 accident at Skyline and Alemany Blvds. which fatally injured Mrs. Cecelia Bremberg, 70, and Henry Osche, 20, both of San Francisco.

He pleaded not guilty, but was convicted after a two-day trial. Patrolman John Couch testified that McDonald failed to heed an arterial stop sign.

Reform School Gets 4 Offenders; Five Probationed

Four of the nine Redwood City youths rounded up by city police and the sheriff's office as members of an automobile theft ring were sentenced to Preston Reform School Monday by Juvenile Court Judge A. R. Cotton.

The five others were returned to their parents, made wards of the juvenile court, placed on probation for one year and required to report weekly to Probation Officer Francis Robinson.

Cases of two other Redwood City youths charged with burglary will be heard in two weeks, Robinson said.

Santa Claus Visits Burlingame Mason

BURLINGAME, Dec. 18—Christmas may still be a week off, but Frank A. Bryan, retiring master of the Burlingame Masonic Lodge, must have thought Santa Claus had his dates mixed Saturday night when he was succeeded by Robert W. Watson at ceremonies attended by more than 200 Masons.

For Bryan, as a token of the esteem and affection of his lodge brothers, was presented with a refrigerator, arm chair, watch chain and past master's jewel and apron. The presentations were made by Charles J. Orman, I. Karmel and Luther E. Penniman.

One of the features of the evening was the comic "past master's degree" arranged by Anderson, Lloyd H. Kruger and Frederic O. Glover.

'60 Most Beautiful' Girls Due in Show

"The 60 Most Beautiful Girls in the World"—in person!

That's the treat in store for San Francisco theater-goers when Producer Earl Carroll brings his latest "Vanities" to the Geary Theater for a two week engagement beginning Dec. 25, with shows New Year's Eve.

This is the first time San Franciscans have had an opportunity to see a world's premiere of a "Vanities" before its presentation on Broadway. Arrangements have been made to transport the entire troupe by special train to New York City after the engagement here.

In addition to the girls, who will be seen for the first time outside of Hollywood following their eight-month triumph there, Carroll will present talent from all over the world. Nirska, butterfly dancer, has been brought from India. The Three Normans, who recently closed a several year engagement in Paris, the Three Nonchalants, direct from Australia, The Four Hot Shots, who have toured internationally, are only a portion of the talent which has been rounded up for this revue.

Professor Lamberti and his unique act will be a featured attraction, as will Lela Moore's sensational "Dance of the Lovers." Ygor and Tanya, dancing stars of "Rose of Washington Square," Johnny Woods, New York's mimic, Singing Stars Reginald Craig, Jerry Lester and Susan Miller, and Beryl Wallace are principals who will be seen in the two act, thirty-five scene production.

Both the 60th and 75th marriage anniversaries are known as diamond weddings.

Man's Jaw Fracture Is Traced to a Cold

It all started over cough medicine, according to Mrs. Lea Hennard's story.

The 37-year-old resident of 201 Lincoln Ave., Redwood City, who was taken from the county jail to tell her story to Dep. Dist. Atty. Burress Karmel on Thursday, ruefully explained that she was taking hot toddies for a cold last night, and apparently took too many.

When her boarder, Frank James, 69, informed her he was leaving and moved his bags to the front porch, she started to argue with him, she admitted. In fact, she assertedly shoved James down the steps and he made a three-point landing on the cement below. The points were James' jaw, nose, and eye. The first mentioned member was fractured.

James was taken to Community Hospital, Mrs. Hennard to jail on a drunk charge. James declined to file a battery complaint.

The average housewife, it has been found, spends 70 per cent of her time in the kitchen.

Stars of Film Aid Food Show

They may be only clever publicity gags, but nevertheless three telegrams Manager Hal Honore of the Sequoia Theater is displaying these days should boost today's food show planned for 2 p.m. to secure merchandise for needy families.

The telegrams are authentic. They actually came from the stars whose names are signed to them, or at least from their agents. But Kiwanis Club members who received them suspect the fine hand of the very actute theater manager behind the deal. Nevertheless, they're worth reading.

FROM BOB BURNS

Here's the one Bob Burns sent to James D. Hedge, secretary of the sponsoring Kiwanis Club:

MY UNCLE EGBERT FELT SO GOOD WHEN I TOLD HIM ABOUT YOUR KIWANIS FOOD SHOW THAT HE SAID I SHOULD DO MY BEST TO ENTERTAIN YOU FOLKS IN WAIKIKI WEDDING STOP THE WAY IVE GOT THIS FIGURED OUT THE KIWANIANS PAY FOR THE SHOW THE DEMOCRATS DISH OUT THE BEANS AND THE REPUBLICANS HAVE TO EAT THEM STOP WELL I DONT CARE AS LONG AS I HAVE MY BAZOOKA BUT I WISH I COULD BE AT THE SEQUOIA THEATRE NEXT FRIDAY WITH YOU FOLKS TO DO MY BIT

CROONS BING CROSBY

Wired Bing Crosby to Club Pres. James P. Hagan:

JUST LEARNED THAT WAIKIKI WEDDING SELECTED BY MANAGER HAL HONORE OF FOX SEQUOIA THEATRE FOR KIWANIS FOOD SHOW FOR NEEDY PEOPLE STOP HOPE MY VOCAL EFFORTS MAY BE THE MEANS OF ATTRACTING MORE SWEET MORSELS THAN BOB BURNS BAZOOKA GIVES SOUR NOTES

THEN MARTHA RAYE

Then to Publisher Sam H. Winklebleck of the Tribune, a member of the Kiwanis Club, came this message from the cavern-mouthed Martha Raye:

BEING THE STAR OF THE KIWANIS CLUB FREE FOOD SHOW FOR NEEDY PEOPLE IN WAIKIKI WEDDING MAKES ME FEEL SWELL OH BOY STOP TELL THOSE REDWOOD CITY FOLKS THAT THERE WILL BE A SANTA CLAUS IF THEY ATTEND THE FOX SEQUOIA THEATRE NEXT FRIDAY TO DO THEIR BIT FOR NEEDY PEOPLE

As may be gleaned from the wires, "Waikiki Wedding" is the feature of the show, admission to which will be some article, can, bag, or box of food.

MENLO PARK NEWS

MENLO PARK, Dec. 21—Last Friday afternoon Our Lady of Good Council Sodolity of the Church of the Nativity of Menlo Park held the annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Louis Diebels. A talk on early Menlo Park history was given by Father McKeown. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments served from tables decorated with small Christmas trees. Those present were Mrs. John Weston, Mrs. Rosalie Brook, Mrs. Edward Nooney, Mrs. Victor Michel, Mrs. Frances Maloney, Mrs. Charles Oram, Mrs. John Damien, Mrs. Frank Brecesco, Mrs. Martin McCarthy, Mrs. Jessie During, Mrs. M. Beeler, Mrs. L. Diebels, Mrs. C. A. Devol, Mrs. Robert Ayres, Mrs. A. W. Gale, Mrs. Eldridge.

Menlo Parlor Native Daughters held their Christmas Party Tuesday evening in Masonic Hall. Christmas carols were sung, games enjoyed and gifts exchanged. Refreshments were served at a table decorated with a lighted Christmas tree and Christmas berries.

On Monday, Jan. 15. in Central School, Menlo Park, the Native Daughters will hold their annual card party for the homeless children. Score cards will be 25c.

William Wilson, formerly of Palo Alto ,is to be married early in February to a pretty young woman of Santa Barbara. Mr Wilson is chief clerk of the Biltmore Hotel of that city, one of the O'Dell chain of hotels. The prospective bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson of Palo Alto and a brother of Mrs. Frank Maloney of Stanford Park.

Mrs. J. Mayfield, formerly Mrs. Jennis Flannagan, was buried from the Church of the Nativity on Wednesday morning. After leaving Menlo Park several years ago she resided with her sister, Mrs. Hannah Wisnom of San Mateo, and soon after the latter's death some time ago Mrs. Mayfield entered a sisters' home in Oakland, where she died last Monday. The deceased came from an old pioneer family of Menlo Park.

The robins that arrived here two weeks ago from the North have departed. The departure of the songbirds is an old Indian sign of a dry Winter. The dearth of rain this season would indicate the Indian sign is correct.

A young men's Republican Club is soon to be organized in Menlo Park. Many prominent young men of the community are to become members. It is understood the club will indorse the candidacy of the fearless district attorney of New York City, Thomas Dewey, for the presidency. From all present indications Dewey will be the next occupant of the White House.

$40,000 Awarded Estate's Executors

Executors of the rich estate of Mrs. Louise Tevis Sharon of Menlo Park were rewarded here by $40,000 as partial payment on account of commissions due for their services. The payment was made on petition of the Bank of California and John Stuart Budge, a solicitor, of Towcester, Northamptonshire, England. Mrs. Sharon, daughter-in-law of the builder of the Palace Hotel, left a will providing more than $1,320,000 in specific bequests. She died Dec. 19, 1938. The $40,000 payment was approved by Judge A. R. Cotton.

Mrs. Delgado Wins Freedom

Nellie Delgado, Belmont widow jailed for complicity in the San Jose court room murder of 1937, won a Yule probation Thursday. She left the Santa Clara County jail after completing the jail term upon which her five-year probationary period was conditioned.

Her story began in October, 1937, when her common law mate, Cirilo, a Southern Pacific section hand, was shot down at the home of Bernardo Soliz in Santa Clara after fight over attentions Delgado assertedly was paying Soliz' 17-year-old niece. Soliz was tried for murder and acquitted. As he walked out of the courtroom Dec. 8, 1937, he was murdered.

Frank Delgado, Cirilo's brother, was sent to Folsom for the offense. Mrs. Delgado was convicted and sent to the woman's prison at Tehachapi Mar. 4, 1938. Retrial was granted on grounds of misconduct by the prosecution.

When the retrial started she made a surprise plea of guilty. Judge R. R. Syer granted probation.

JUDGE SCORES D. A., DELAYS DRUG CASE

Sentence of Tony Gamazzo, convicted of illegal possession of marijuana, was delayed until Jan. 8 by Judge Maxwell McNutt here after he delivered a scorching denunciation of lack of co-operation by the district attorney's office with the court and the probation officer.

At issue was Gamazzo's motion for probation, previously approved by Probation Officer Francis Robinson. On Dec. 12 State Narcotics Division Chief Paul Madden made a personal plea against probation.

This morning Agent Ralph Armstrong took the stand to tell Judge McNutt that he believed Gamazzo was an important wholesale operative in the marijuana racket. Armstrong said that 26 hours after agents discovered the single can of the drug cited in the complaint, they returned and found a trunk load.

"Why didn't you testify to that at the time of the trial?" asked Judge McNutt.

The agent replied that he merely answered questions the district attorney asked him.

Dep. Dist. Atty. Burress Karmel informed the court that his office was considering adding another count to the possession count against Gamazzo, or filing a new complaint.

The judge then inquired why the district attorney's office had failed to take the probation officer into its confidence before he made his recommendation.

After criticizing the lack of co-operation between the county offices concerned, he continued the case for further investigation.

Wallace B. Smith, 42, Veterans' Administration Facility employe at North Palo Alto convicted of burglarizing the Menalto Inn of $25, was admitted to probation for two years on condition he serve six months in jail.

Trial of L. R. Hayden, 52, Woodside, who pleaded not guilty to felony drunk driving, was set for Dec. 27. Hayden waived trial by jury.

Peninsula Districts Mentioned in Book

Just off the presses of a Fort Wayne, Ind., publishing house is a book by A. K. Mehl, retired lawyer who is now living in Burlingame with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joy Wayne Mehl, 1217 Cabrillo Ave.

The new book, beautifully bound, is entitled "Wild Paradise" and is a description of natural beauties and nature observations noted by Mehl in the High Sierras and elsewhere. Some of the places and incidents described are in San Mateo County.

The book includes poetry as well as prose and is profusely illustrated. Mehl is a photographer as well as an author and poet.

Treats for Kiddies Offered by Santa

"Christmas treats for all the kiddies, distributed by Santa Claus in person!"

That's the statement made by "Jimmie" Murphy of the Campus Creamery, who has announced that the genial old fellow will spend the entire afternoon on Saturday at the Campus Creamery, 2732 Broadway. All kiddies are invited to be there to greet him.

TEN SAN MATEANS WILL TOUR STATE AFTER YULETIDE

Ten members of the San Mateo Hi-Y Club 110-pound basketball team, representing the Peninsula YMCA, will leave on a week's goodwill tour in the southern part of California the day after Christmas.

Spending each night as guests of the Hi-Y clubs in the cities which they visit, the boys will play games at Fresno Dec. 26, Santa Barbara Dec. 27, Los Angeles Dec. 28, Hollywood Dec. 29 and Riverside Dec. 30. They will return home Jan. 1.

Joe Acheson, leader of the "Y" club, states that his teams have made good showings in previous years and feels certain that the local boys will show southern teams a good brand of basketball.

Funds for the trip were raised by members of the YMCA committee and mothers of the boys who held a food sale Saturday in San Mateo.

Those selected to make the trip are: Bob Rose and Kenjo Kato, managers; George McMills, George Benoit, George Lee, Sachi Adachi, Bob Moritz, Jake Pease, Tony Freskitt and John Malen

A going-away party will be given for the team tomorrow by Paul Wood, YMCA committeeman and club sponsor. All members of the San Mateo club will attend the dinner along with Charles Smith, committeeman, and Thomas Badley, executive secretary of the Peninsula YMCA.

Floors in modern candy factories are cleaned every two or three hours.

SIMPLE FOODS BEST WHEN BUSY FILM FOLK GET INTO HUDDLE

Young members of the film colony take little time to fuss about formalities. Here Patricia Ellis, featured in Columbia's "Fugitive at Large," puts out a hospitable snack in a hurry, with the aid of crisp Snow Flake crackers and an array of emergency shelf delicacies, and cordially asks personable Tom Rutherford of stage and screen to help her enjoy it. "Fresh crackers, delicately salted, crisp and crunchy, make just as big a hit served with hors d'oeuvres, cheeses and soups as do far more elaborate concoctions," 'Pat' declares, "and certainly are far and away much less trouble."

Floridans Consider Residence in R. C.

The Redwood City Chamber of Commerce has evidence in writing to support its contention that Florida has nothing on this community when it comes to residential qualities.

Received by Secty.-Manager Roscoe D. Wyatt was a post-card from Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Thomas, of Lake Wales, Fla., requesting information about Redwood City, such as its climate, altitude, health advantages and costs of living. The card requested tear sheets from the Tribune showing week-end grocery advertisements for comparison with Florida prices.

Chief complaint voiced in the communication was about the cost of Florida living. Prices were cited, such as milk, 16-18 cents a quart; butter, 40-47 cents a pound; eggs, 43 cents a dozen.

Lake Wales is in Osceola County, in mid-Florida. Wyatt said he sent immediately the information requested. How the applicants were led to inquire about Redwood City in preference to any other city in California Wyatt did not know, but said he was interested in finding out.

Playfulness of Dog Brings Woman Injury

BURLINGAME, Dec. 18 — Mrs. Richard V. McAllister Jr., 39, Burlingame, was in Mills Hospital today recovering from a fracture of the right leg and debating the question of whether the old saying that "A dog is man's best friend" holds true, after all.

For it was the playfulness of the McAllister dog, described by Mr. McAllister as "just a mongrel," that resulted in Mrs. McAllister's injury.

The couple and their two children were picnicking south of Half Moon Bay yesterday. Suddenly their dog, who had wandered up a hillside, came charging down "at about 50 miles an hour," according to the victim's description. Mrs. McAllister attempted to step out of the dog's path, slipped and fell.

3 Classes Set For This Year

Fifty dollars in cash is offered as prizes this year for the best illuminated outdoor Christmas displays, members of the Lions Club, which is sponsoring the contest, announced Monday.

Three classifications have been established for the contest:

1. Best outdoor decorations of house and shrubs: First, $12.50; second, $7.50; third, $5.

2. Best decorated large outdoor living tree: First, $7.50; second, $3; third, $2.

3. Best decorated window display: First, $7.50; second, $3; third, $2.

Window displays will be judged on originality and artistic effect, according to Thomas W. Cutting, chairman of the Lions' committee.

Window displays should be entered in the contest by telephoning or otherwise notifying the Tribune (Redwood 2000), giving name of the entrant and the street address. Other outdoor entries need not be entered, but may be if there is danger of their being overlooked. Judging will be done the night of Dec. 28 by a committee yet to be named.

Many lighted displays made their appearance over the weekend. Trees brilliantly lighted; novel windows; a huge star atop a house; giant lighted candles in front of one house; garlands of lights of mixed colors strung around houses, and other effects may be seen these nights in Redwood City.

Because of some complaints that lights have been stolen from illuminated displays in past years, Redwood City police have been asked by Chief C. L. Collins to keep an especial lookout for light thieves in an effort to minimize such thefts.

Some native males of South Africa work just long enough to buy a few wives and cattle. They then cease, and their well-being depends on how well their wives work.

Studebaker Agency Taken by Bissell

Announcement of the appointment of Roy A. Bissell, proprietor of Bissell Tire and Battery Service, as new dealer for Studebakers in Redwood City was made here by Jack O. A. Hall, district sales manager for the Studebaker Pacific Corp.

Bissell, who has been operating his own business in Redwood City for 13 years, expects to have his display room in his present store, Broadway and Jefferson Ave., completed by the first of the year. He is handling sales already.

A complete service shop for Studebakers will be installed. Bissell said he also plans to expand his tire and battery service. He is dealer for General tires and Hobbs batteries.

The firm formerly was known as Bissell & Boggess, but the partnership was dissolved 11 years ago. Bissell was employed in Redwood City for three years before he went into his own business.

Kiwanians Hosts To Boys at Party

Forty boys from Redwood City were guests of the Kiwanis Club yesterday at its annual boys' luncheon at Sodini's Grill. Max J. Leonard, member of the Boys Committee, presided and Bert L. Werder was chairman of the day.

Footballs, candy and oranges were given by Santa Claus to each boy attending.

Following the meeting the boys were entertained at a special matinee as guests of Kiwanian Hal Honore' at the Sequoia Theater. Three cartoon pictures were shown and community singing was lead by Charles G. Lambert. Mrs. Clarrissa Bray accompanied at the organ.

The club voted an assessment of $1 per member for the Finnish Relief Fund and a check for $52 was received by the Tribune to be turned over to the fund.
